

Author:

Editor:

Body Paragraph Check List

Please read their paragraph and check off the statement only if you believe it to be true!

- Interesting start to the paragraph
- You have a clear idea the topic of the paper:
- There are three main points for the section (3 effects detailed or 3 cons detailed:
- First main pointed is explained and supported with MLA citation. Is there a period at the END of the sentence?
- Second main point is explained and supported with MLA citation Is there a period at the END of the sentence?
- Third main point is explained and supported with MLA citation Is there a period at the END of the sentence?
- They did a good job with all Point and Comment, as well as proof. (This means it flows well, the point introduces the point of the evidence, and the comment explains how the evidence (proof) relates to the thesis statement.)
- Quotes are effectively used, meaning, introduced, integrated and explained
- They effectively used transitions
- There are no contractions
- All numbers under 100 are spelled out
- Internal citations are correct
- Paragraph is free of grammar errors

Comments to the writer:

What was done particularly well?

What questions do you the reader have?

What do they really need to pay attention to in the revision process?