

What are benefits and learning opportunities from having an independent reading life?

What are you learning about your preferences in an independent reading life? (genre, topics, etc.)

What are you learning through independent reading this year?

Are you happy with the amount of time and energy you are spending on independent reading? Why or why not?

What are your goals for the rest of the year regarding independent reading?

How can Ms. Brown best help you in your independent reading?